

Application form for membership of the Penzance Literary Festival Association

The aims of the Association are:

- To promote an annual literary festival in Penzance
- To celebrate the literary life of West Cornwall
- To nurture and support reading and writing activities in West Cornwall
- To campaign for the encouragement and appreciation of local authors.

I, (please print), approve of the above aims and support the Association in its furtherance of them.

I enclose my subscription for the current year (£10).

I understand that it is a condition of membership that members agree that their names and email addresses are made known to all other members, and I agree that this can be done in my case.

My email address is :

I am / am not a member of the Society of Authors. (Please delete as applicable.)
